Rules for Denton County golf courses

This document provides guidelines for personnel and businesses associated with golf courses on the meaning and application of the executive order issued by Denton County Commissioners Court April 14, 2020.

Denton County Judge Andy Eads held a video conference call on Thursday, April 9, with the COO of PGA Americas, and roughly 30 golf course owners or general managers, where it was discussed and agreed if the courses reopened they would establish the following rules for operation. On April 11, 2020, the Texas Attorney General posted a letter clarifying the Governor's Executive Order GA-14 as it relates to golf courses. As a result, the following rules were determined to be best practices at this time and in keeping with the classification of essential activities.

The purpose of these rules is to outline steps that every Denton County golf course, employee, and golfer must follow to reduce the risk of exposure to COVID-19. The rules describe how to prevent worker exposure to COVID-19 and protective measures that should be undertaken at all golf courses.
