WAIVER OF RIGHT TO CROSS EXAMINE WITNESS AND OF EVIDENCE OF A RECENT OVERT ACT OR CONTINUING PATTERN OR BEHAVIOR AT HEARING ON COURT ORDERED MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES AND HEARING ON MOTION TO MODIFY

We, the undersigned Proposed Patient and Attorney representing said Proposed Patient in the above-referenced cause, hereby waive the right to cross-examine witnesses and file same with the Court. Accordingly, at the Hearing on the Application for Court-Ordered Mental Health Services, the Court may admit into evidence the Certificate of Medical Examination for Mental Illness based on examinations conducted within the preceding 30 days, and, if so admitted, the Certificates shall constitute competent medical or psychiatric testimony and the Court may make its findings on the basis of these Certificates. We further waive evidence of either a recent overt act or a continuing pattern of behavior, in either case, tending to confirm the likelihood of serious harm to others or to me, the Proposed Patient, or my distress and deterioration of ability to function.
